

“Scalable multiplatform App built in Flutter”

Client situation

- EDataNow is leading Canadian based company work in Quality Audits for manufacturing sector.
- Client had IOS app for on field audits built on legacy platform
- Client wanted to extend the application on Android and Windows platform

Our offering

- We researched and suggested Flutter as technology of Choice for multiplatform single code base architecture
- Approached hybrid model with Project Lead in UK and development from Hyderabad Center.
- Implemented project in agile methodology for deployable product feature every alternate sprints.
- Added ML image analysis for fault detection of auto parts.

Business value unlocked

- Flutter provides great technology platform for serving Android and IOS users. This reduced technical debt and operational cost.
- Improved User Interface and potential larger customer base
- Unlock subscription based and in app purchase model for app users.

